Dear Carol

Thank you very much indeed for your presentation to trustees yesterday. Your account of your life since meeting Peter was very moving indeed, and a real eye-opener for us all. You and others were so brave to speak in such a frank and full way. We all realised how emotional it was for you to do so and did appreciate your giving so fully of yourself. Thank you.

I am so very sorry that you were robbed on the tube after leaving the meeting. Alas, as you found out from the police when you reported what had happened, it is an all too frequent occurrence in London now. We realise that you are unlikely to receive any compensation from any statutory source, and so we are sending you a cheque for £80 to cover the amount stolen.

Thank you again for your contribution to the Trustees Update Day yesterday.

Good luck with the campaign.

With all best wishes
Yours sincerely
