RESTRICTED - Appointments

Charles

Nigel Crisp was grateful for your submission dated 28 May. He is content that, on the basis of the evidence presented to him, the exercise was fair and proper, that due process was adhered to and that, in his opinion, there is no obstacle to the appointment of the two recommended candidates.

Please find attached a note on the above following comments from PS(PH).

As just discussed, you already have the original submission and comments, however, if any of copyees do not have the original papers and would like to see them, please let me know and I will be happy to forward them on.

Happy to discuss.
