

Dear Mrs Fowler

With reference to your letter (18/8/95):

My husband was told on 18/8/94 that he was seriously ill and had only weeks to live. Just 16 days later he died. During that time, in which he was desperately ill, we realised we had to reluctantly discuss certain matters.

The action I took, regarding the money given to my children/grandchildren was one of those matters.

Naturally because of this, I cannot provide any documentation regarding the payments, as my husband was simply too ill to attend to such details. All I can provide you with is my honest account of his verbal instruction.

The Woolwich Building Society loan was taken out in July 1992 - for a five year period. It had been used for new carpeting, curtains and household decorations etc. I decided to settle the loan in order ^{to save} money to be due on interest charges ^{during} the 2 1/2 years the loan had to run.

Truethfully I am unable to give you any further information regarding this matter.

The first anniversary of my husband's death is 3/9/95 and I would kindly ask you to bear this date
in mind with relevance to future
correspondence.

Dear Mrs. Fowler

With reference to your letter dated 18th August 1995.

My husband was told on the 18th August 1994 that he was seriously ill and had only ^{weeks} to live. ^{Just} 16 days later he died. During ^{that time} those 16 days we discussed various matters ^{and} the action that I took regarding money given to my children/grandchildren ^{was} one of the matters ^{discussed}. I ^{cannot} ~~can~~ ^{provide} any documentation regarding the cash as ^{my husband} was to ^{my confirmation of his} ~~provide~~ ^{provide} it ^{by} ~~verbal~~ ^{verbal} instruction.

The Woodlark Builders Society loan was taken out ⁱⁿ July 1992 and used for law carpeting/curtains etc for our home. I settled the loan so as to save the money over the 12 years the loan had to run to interest charges.

Truthfully,
~~I regret~~ I am unable to give you any further information regarding this matter.
