Participants attending Central Hall will receive these two volumes (which will also be posted to other participants). Anyone planning to access the report online through Egress at Central Hall must bring their own device, and ensure that it is fully charged.

Participants and their recognised legal representatives are welcome to arrive at any point during the morning. They will be able to come and go as they wish, though nobody will be able to take copies outside until after publication at 12.30pm.

Afternoon: Other people attending are asked to arrive from 1pm. Sir Brian Langstaff will speak at 2pm and this will be followed by Reflections. The Great Hall will open from 1.15pm for people to take their seats.

Refreshments: Tea and coffee will be available throughout the day and lunch will be provided from 12 until 1.30pm.

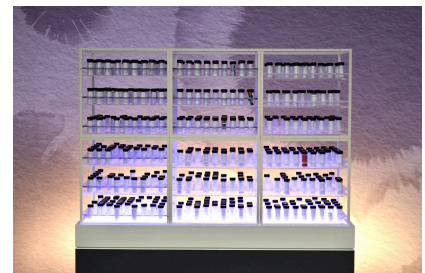

Wellbeing: Please do not attend if you feel unwell that day. Masks will be available for anyone who feels more comfortable wearing one.

Media: Sir Brian Langstaff's remarks and Reflections will be filmed and live streamed on YouTube. People attending will not be shown on camera. Journalists will be wearing yellow lanyards for identification. Broadcast and print media have been requested not to film people without their permission.
