

Inquiry Milestones

July 2017

UK government announces Inquiry into Infected blood and blood products

February 2018

Sir Brian Langstaff appointed as Chair of Inquiry

April - June 2018

Consultation of Terms of Reference

July 2018

Terms of Reference published and Inquiry formally starts work

September 2018

Preliminary hearings held at Church House, Westminster

December 2018

List of Issues published by Inquiry

January 2019

Intermediary service introduced as an alternative to witness statements for people infected and affected

February 2019

Expert groups appointed to give advice to the Inquiry on a range of subjects

April - October 2019

Inquiry hears evidence from people infected and affected around the UK

February 2020

Evidence from HIV, Hepatitis, Psychosocial, Bleeding and Blood Disorder expert groups and Intermediaries

September 2020

Evidence from haemophilia clinicians

January 2021

Evidence from medical ethics expert group

February 2021

Evidence from Haemophilia Society and Alliance House organisations

May 2021

Evidence from current support schemes in the four nations

June 2021

Evidence from Treloar's and campaigners

July 2021

Evidence from government witnesses

September - October 2021

Counsel presentations on pharmaceutical companies

November 2021 - February 2022

Evidence from regional transfusion directors

January - February 2022

Evidence from national blood services and centres

March - April 2022

Evidence relating to self-sufficiency and domestic production of blood products

May - June 2022

Evidence relating to vCJD and further evidence from government witnesses

July 2022

Evidence from Sir Robert Francis KC on the Compensation Framework Study. Inquiry publishes interim report on 29 July 2022

July - September 2022

Further evidence from government witnesses and evidence relating to cover-up

September - October 2022

Evidence from panels of people infected and affected and from the Public Health and Administration expert group

November 2022

Evidence relating to:

- Reducing exposure to blood transfusions and criteria for liver transplants
- Haemovigilance and Pharmacovigilance
- How to find people undiagnosed
- Irish Haemophilia Society
- Statistics expert group
- Civil Service
- Specialist Psychological Support
- MHRA & UKHSA

January - February 2023

Closing statements from recognised legal representatives, unrepresented core participants and Counsel to the Inquiry

April 2023

Second Interim Report published on 5 April 2023

May 2024

Inquiry report published on 20 May 2024

May 2025

Hearings on 7 & 8 May 2025, about the timeliness and adequacy of the Government's response to compensation

July 2025

Inquiry publishes Additional Report on Compensation on 9 July 2025

March 2026

The Inquiry's work comes to an end on 31 March 2026