(b) give an undertaking to the Secretary of State in the form set out in Schedule 2 hereto, and

(c) obtain an order under Order 80 r.11 Rules of the Supreme Court approving and giving directions for dealing with the payment in so far as such an order may be necessary.

IF THE TRUSTEES are satisfied that:-

(i) any person has been tested for the presence of antibodies to the human immuno-deficiency virus after 13th December 1990, and that

(ii) the test was positive, and that

(iii) that test was that person's first such test the result of which was positive, and

(iv) that on balance of probabilities that person was infected with the human immuno-deficiency virus before 13th December 1990, and

(v) the result of that test brings the person within the definition of a single adult, ~~a haemophiliac~~ but childless, married with children or an intimate, and married

(vi) the person is not under a disability, they shall pay to that person the appropriate sum specified in clause 3 above provided that that person:-

(a) applies to the Trustees for a payment within three months of his knowing the result of the test or within five years of the date hereof, whichever is the sooner, and

(b) gives an undertaking to the Secretary of State in the form set out in the Schedule 1 hereto.

14. IF THE TRUSTEES are satisfied that:-

(i) any person has been tested for the presence of antibodies to the human immuno-deficiency virus after the 13th December 1990, and that

(ii) the test was positive, and that

(iii) that test was that person's first such test the result of which was positive, and

(iv) that on balance of probabilities that person was infected with the human immuno-deficiency virus before 13th December 1990, and

(v) the result of that test brings the person within the definition of:-

- a single adult, married but childless, married with children or an intimate, and that person is under a disability, or
- an infant,

they shall pay the appropriate sums specified in clause 3 above provided that:-

(a) application is made for the payment within three months of the person knowing the result of the test or before 31st December 1999 whichever is the sooner, and

(b) an order is made under Order 80 r.11 Rules of the Supreme Court for approval of and giving directions for dealing with the payment.

15. IF THE TRUSTEES are satisfied that:-

(i) at 13th December 1990 any person had been correctly diagnosed as infected with the human immuno-deficiency virus, but

(ii) that that person had not been informed of that diagnosis, and

(iii) that had that person known of the diagnosis he would have been able to apply for a payment under clause 10 or 11 hereof

the Trustees shall pay to that person the appropriate sum specified in clause 3 above provided that that person:-

(a) applies to the Trustees within three months of his becoming aware of the diagnosis or before 31st December 1999, whichever is the earlier, and

(b) gives an undertaking to the Secretary of State in the form set out in Schedule 1 hereto.

16. IF ANY PERSON who is or becomes entitled to a payment under this deed dies before the payment is made the Trustees shall make the payment that person would have received to his personal representatives provided that the personal representatives:-

(a) give an undertaking to the Secretary of State in the forms set out in Schedule 2 hereto, and

(b) obtain an order under Order 80, r.11 Rules of the Supreme Court approving and giving directions for dealing with the payment in so far as such an order may be necessary.

17. In addition to all other powers contained herein the Trustees may, subject to the consent of the Secretary of State, make payments of the sums specified in clause 3 above to or in respect of such other persons infected with the human immuno-deficiency virus as are consistent with the general purport of this deed.

CASES OF DOUBT

18. IF FOR ANY REASON the Trustees are not satisfied either as to a person's entitlement to a payment under this deed or as to its amount, or if the Trustees are unable to determine a person's entitlement to a payment under this deed the Trustees shall refer the matter to the Secretary of State for Health, for Wales, for Scotland or for Northern Ireland for his determination according to whether the person concerned is resident in England, Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland.

19. IF, WHEN THE TRUSTEES REFER a matter to one of Secretaries of State referred to in clause 18 above, and the Secretary of State concerned is for any reason not satisfied either as to a person's entitlement to a payment under this deed or as to its amount or if the Secretary of State concerned is unable to determine the person's entitlement to a payment the Secretary of State concerned shall refer the matter for determination by a medical or legal expert according to the nature of the uncertainty and the determination of that expert shall be final.
