Oxford Haemophilia Centre
Churchill Hospital

Dear Miss Spooner

I have just taken over as Haemophilia Director at the Royal Liverpool Hospital and on reviewing the patients records I am left with the impression that many of our bleeders have not been registered with Oxford. Over the course of the next few weeks I will be sending you Notification Forms on those that do not appear on the Oxford returns. I would be grateful if you could cross-check them and make sure that they are not registered with another centre. I would also be grateful if you could send me a large stack of Notification Forms since I am sure we are going to run out.

If you do discover that some of these patients are registered elsewhere I should be grateful if you could let me know.

Yours sincerely

GRO-C
