Dear JJ Evans

Freedom of Information Request Reference FOI 1097609

Thank you for your request dated 10 September 2017 in which you asked the Department of Health (DH):

"Under the Freedom of Information Act I would like to request that access to the HIM 22/1 Series of records is made available through the National Archives Online Discovery Catalogue. These are the records which DH have said were found in unregistered files at DH (Wellington House), relating to the safety of blood products between 1970 and 1985. This particular series contains 102 files and relates to Haemophiliacs.

A review carried out this month by Factor 8 Campaign UK has found that although the Government and DH stated throughout 2016 and 2017 that ALL documents had been made available through TNA, this is not the case, in fact less than 10% of this series has been made available. The availability of such appears to be selective.

These are not documents which had been destroyed during the 1990's as DH confirmed the existence of the 102 files in this series in mid 2007.

We have in fact found, after examining all of the references of all the files held on the TNA's Catalogue, that of the 102 files in this series, only 11 are actually available, the 11 available files are...

Your request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

DH holds the paper originals of these files. However, as the information held by DH is already in the public domain, we will under Section 21 of the FOI Act (information accessible to the applicant by other means) refer you to the published source. The attached schedule gives a link on The National Archives website to each of the files that you have identified as being missing, together with a link to the inventory for sets of the files.

If you are not satisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to appeal by asking for an internal review. This should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be addressed to the address at the top of this letter, or the email address at the end of this letter.

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are not content with the outcome of your internal review, you may complain directly to the Information Commissioner (ICO) who may decide to investigate your concerns. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have already appealed our original response, and received our internal review response. The ICO will not usually investigate concerns where there has been an undue delay in bringing it to their attention. You should raise your concerns with them within three months of your last meaningful contact with us.

The ICO can be contacted at:
