Dear Mr Merry,

Re: Extract from the National Haemophilia Database

We are contacting you because you previously requested a copy of the personal information held about you at the National Haemophilia Database.

Following that request, we sent you all the information that was held on our electronic database. It was assumed at that time that the electronic record was a complete record. However, on recent inspection of the paper archive we discovered that some details, from paper forms submitted to the database in the seventies through to the nineties, were archived but not entered into the electronic record. These forms were submitted many years ago by your Haemophilia Centre when the database was held in Oxford before paper reporting was phased out in 2000.

Please see enclosed the additional paperwork that we have found on you when going through this archived material. We apologise unreservedly that you were not sent all the information after your initial request and for any distress or difficulties this may have caused. Please be aware that some paperwork had other names on in addition to yours, and therefore these parts of the records have been blacked out to preserve confidentiality.

Yours sincerely,

GRO-C

Prof. Charles RM Hay

Director of the National Haemophilia Database
