

19th August, 1946,

Dear Robb-Smith,

The question raised about plasma by Janet Vaughan has been worrying me for some months. We had already discussed it with Sir Wilson Jameson, and agreed that users must be told that it is a potentially lethal fluid which should be used with discretion. Sir Philip has sent the relevant part of your letter to the legal gentlemen, and I hope in time that we will have a definite policy.

Yours sincerely,

GRO-C
