INFECTED BLOOD INQUIRY

WRITTEN STATEMENT OF JANE BLOOM

I provide this statement in response to a request under Rule 9 of the Inquiry Rules 2006 dated 23 August 2019.

I, Jane Bloom, will say as follows: -

1. My name is Jane Bloom. My address is known to the Inquiry.
2. Apart from my involvement as one of the founders of The South Wales Haemophilia Society which was set up during the 1970's at the request of patients to fund raise, I do not know anything about my husband's work, the blood products he used, the clinical studies he conducted, and the patients he has met or treated.
3. I do not have access to, or possession of, any material, presentation, medical records and documents that my husband may have had in relation to his profession.

4. I do not have any information about my husband's career that will be useful to the Inquiry. The only thing I would be able to provide to the Inquiry is a personal portrait of my husband.

Statement of Truth

I believe that the facts stated in this witness statement are true.
