I, Martin Bell, will say as follows: -

On 29 July 2022, the Inquiry Chair announced a recommendation for an interim payment of £100,000 to be paid to people registered on a UK Infected Blood Support Scheme, with the first payments made on 28 October 2022. How many people, who have been paid the £100,000 interim payment in the first year of operation, have registered with the Scottish Infected Blood Support Scheme since 29 July 2022? Of these registrants, please provide the number of people infected and the number of bereaved partners.

1. Sixty-Two (62) people have registered since 29 July 2023.
2. Of this cohort (62), 37 people are infected and 25 are bereaved partners.

Question 2. What proportion of the total numbers of people infected/bereaved to whom the payment was made in the first year of operation to 28 October 2023 have registered since 29 July 2022? (i.e. the percentage of people infected and percentage of people bereaved).
