Charles

Lord Hunt should write to Susan Deacon as we agreed at the meeting before she meets the Haem Soc or at the very least before she makes any statement. There should be joined up UK policy here. Lord Hunt might be in a difficult position if he were to meet the Haem Soc after SD's statement and his letter might float your idea of a joint announcement -or even consistent separate national ones -after he has also met them. Even if SD thinks there is a case to answer in relation to the 1995/7 heat treatment gap in Scotland this could be part of the Statement pointing up that policy in all 4 countries was to compensate only negligent damage. This would be helpful in laying the ground for any announcement on settling the blood transfusion cases.
